
ECI is the world's leading provider of vegetation and asset management consulting services to the utility industry. For more than three decades, ECI and its affiliates have delivered research-based business solutions that optimize return on investment, improve system reliability and increase stakeholder value.

ECI and Western ECI are aligned to provide global consulting services to a wide range of industries. ECI serves clients throughout North America. Western ECI provides professional vegetation management personnel in fire-prone areas of the Western United States.

WE SERVE...

- Electric Utilities
- Municipalities
- Pipeline Companies
- Railroad Companies
- State Departments of Transportation
- Telecommunications Companies
- Gas Companies
- Water Companies

Alliant Energy Transmission — Alliant Energy in Cedar Rapids, Iowa contracted with ECI to evaluate...

EPRI projects — Significant societal and economic benefits accrue through multiple uses of electric...

Progress Energy — ECI conducted a complete vegetation inventory of a portion of the Progress Energy...