CLAIMS PROCESS

We understand you have sustained a loss and you believe PG&E may be responsible. If we prove to be responsible, we want to prompt you. To evaluate your claim, we must determine how the incident happened, whether or not we caused it, and compensate you fairly. To help us evaluate your claim, we will ask you some frequently asked questions about submitting a claim to Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

WHAT IS THE CLAIMS POLICY AND PROCESS? It is PG&E’s policy to respond to claims promptly and fairly. We evaluate each claim we receive and our investigation. The time it takes to investigate your claim will depend on the information you provide and the complexity of the case. Our goal is to reach a decision on your claim within 30 days of its receipt. However, if there are complex issues involved, or if we need additional information, the process may take longer.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR DAMAGES? Generally speaking, PG&E is responsible for damages that result from its negligence. To be具体来说，PG&E is obligated to reimburse reasonable damages. We are not responsible for damages that we do not cause or that are the result of forces beyond our control, such as power outages or voltage fluctuations caused by earthquakes, weather conditions, floods, storms, extreme heat or winds) curtailments or outages initiated at the direction of any electric grid operator or due to a failure caused by us. There may be situations in which PG&E is only partially responsible for a loss. In those cases we will offer to pay our fair share of the damages.

WHAT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY? You have a duty to mitigate your damages, which means that you have to minimize the loss, or expenses incurred because of an incident are not accumulating needlessly and that they are reasonable in relation to the loss.

WHAT DO YOU NEED TO PROVIDE? You should retain copies of all receipts so you can provide full and accurate documentation of your expenses. You can help us expedite your claim by completing the claim form as thoroughly as possible, and by enclosing appropriate photographs or documentation. Below are general examples.
